PLA CREDIT EVALUATION SUMMARY FOR:
FARMLAND FOODS

Ashford University recognizes the uniqueness of each student's experience and realizes that learning takes place in a variety of environments. The Prior Learning Assessment (PLA) program provides a means for awarding credit to students who bring college-level learning experiences acquired outside of a traditional university classroom setting. Students may pursue their academic and professional goals through a variety of degree programs at Ashford University.

For additional information on Ashford's degree programs, please visit success.ashford.edu/farmland.

As part of an agreement with Ashford University, specific Farmland Foods trainings have been evaluated by the PLA Department, and credit awards have been determined. Once a student meets eligibility requirements, the PLA submission fee will be waived for the Farmland Foods trainings listed below.

FARMLAND FOODS
Training Title	Credit Recommendation
Leadership Excellence Level II	1 Lower Division elective credit
FAME (Farmland Academy for Manufacturing Excellence)	1 Lower Division elective credit

*The credit recommendation is the maximum number of credits students can receive IF there is room in their Degree Progress Report (DPR). Credit recommendations are subject to the student's major and transfer credits.

TRANSFER PROVISIONS

Students must complete 120 credits to obtain a Bachelor's degree. A maximum of 90 combined nontraditional learning, prior learning, and transfer credits may be accepted and applied toward the 120 credit requirement. Within the 90 credit maximum, a maximum of 75 credits of nontraditional credit, including a maximum of 30 credits of prior learning, may be applied toward degree completion. Students in Oregon and Washington may apply a maximum of 30 credits toward a bachelor's degree from any combination of prior learning assessment or other nontraditional learning, including national testing programs, or credit recommendation services. The prior learning assessment option is not available to non-degree seeking students or to students in a graduate degree program. Official transfer credit evaluation takes place once a student is enrolled at Ashford University, and all official transcripts have been received. For additional information on Ashford University's transfer options, please visit: success.ashford.edu/transfertoashford.
